

UPH

Royal Highland Day Tour

The British Royal Family have called Scotland home for generations.

Discover why with this unique journey to the Highland residence of the Queen. Tour Balmoral Castle, taste whisky from the nearby Royal Lochnagar Distillery and dine at the spectacular Fife Arms, awarded Hotel of the Year by The Sunday Times.

Balmoral Castle

Located in Royal Deeside, Aberdeen shire, Balmoral Castle is one of the private residences owned by The Royal Family. Originally built in the 15th century, Balmoral was then bought by Queen Victoria and Prince Albert in 1852. Enjoy an hour tour of the Castle to view the interior of the Queen's residence and enjoy the spectacular grounds.

Royal Lochnagar Distillery

Less than a mile away from Balmoral Castle, the Royal Lochnagar Distillery is situated at the foot of the Cairngorm mountains and uses the crystal clear water of the Scarnock springs. Famous for its royal warrant and its outstanding flavour, enjoy a tour of the Distillery followed by a dram of 12 year old, Distillery Exclusive and selected Reserve Whiskies.

The Fife Arms

To complete your Royal Highland tour, enjoy a meal at The Fife Arms in Braemar. Built in the 19th century this hotel is an abstract juxtaposition of the old and the new. Adorned with both modern and traditional artworks, the hotel is a marvel of discoveries for guests. Enjoy the finest seasonal produce in this marvellous setting before being driven back by your Ultimate Private Hire driver.

