

UPH

Gateway to the Highlands Whisky Tour

Taste the heritage of Scotland with Ultimate Private Hire's day tour of three Single Malt Whisky Distilleries. Sit back and enjoy the Scottish scenery in private luxury, while we drive you to each destination. Setting off from Glasgow, Edinburgh or Stirling let UPH take you on a day full of history, craftsmanship and delicious whisky.

Deanston Distillery

Deanston Distillery is the first stop located in Stirlingshire, it was originally built to house a cotton mill on the banks of The River Teith. Now a fully functioning Distillery, Deanston focuses on local ingredients and craft to create whisky expressions known for their fresh, honeyed sweetness.

The Glenturret Distillery

As Scotland's oldest working distillery, The Glenturret is the home of handcrafted Whisky Distilling and traditional whisky making. The site has been distilling for 250 years and focuses on uniting contemporary elegance with the distillery's long standing reputation for traditional craftsmanship.

Lunch at The Dormy House, Gleneagles

After a busy morning sampling Whisky, The Dormy House at Gleneagles is the perfect spot to enjoy some lunchtime refreshments. With fine views of the King's and Queen's Golf Courses, The Dormy offers grill classics and comfort food in the vibrant clubhouse setting.

Tullibardine Distillery

The final stop of the whisky tour, Tullibardine Distillery provides visitors with an insight into the art of distillation. Tullibardine focuses on the traditional methods of whisky production and displays the process from grain to glass.
